

Intent vs. Impact Reflection Paper

Please watch the following video (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=83KMiek0E8I>).

This sanction is designed to engage you in thoughtful reflection regarding your actions leading to a violation of the Student Conduct Code and what you have learned from this experience. Please note that the purpose of this assignment is not to provide you with a venue to justify your actions or to evaluate the actions of others.

The paper should be 2-3 pages long and composed in an appropriate manner as any essay/paper in a college classroom setting and address the following:

1. Despite intentions, how do incidents like this impact individual students?
2. How do incidents like this impact the TCNJ community?
3. When thinking about intent vs. impact- what happened in this incident? Why might hearing about the impact be uncomfortable?
4. Moving forward, what influence do you have to positively impact the TCNJ community?
5. What impact do you want to have?
6. What influence do you have to make positive change within the TCNJ community?
7. Where can you most influence change?

Please submit your reflection to your hearing administrator and conduct@tcnj.edu. Insufficient reflection or incomplete responses may result in rewriting and resubmission of your reflection paper.
