

Community Standards Board FAQS:

1

What is the CSB?

This is an option available to students and recognized student orgs to have a group of their peers hear their conduct case.

2

Can I apply if I am a freshman?

Yep!

3

I previously had a conduct refferal, can I apply?

Yes, as long as you are not actively on a status sanction above a warning and you have completed all educational requirements.

4

My experience with Student Conduct was negative, should I apply?

Yes! We value the input of students who have experienced conduct and can help improve another student's experience.

5

What's in it for me?

Being a part of CSB provides a leadership experience, development of critical thinking, analytical, and argumentative writing skills PLUS an opportunity to be a part of a team of students educating their peers on rights and responsibilities.

Click here to apply!